

Statement of Impartiality

Beijing United Intelligence Certification Co., Ltd. (UICC) is a subsidiary company invested by Beijing United Intelligence Enterprise Management Co., Ltd. UICC is a third party certification body with legal status and independent civil responsibility, providing management system certification, product certification and service certification for all sectors, and a third party institution filing at the national certification & accreditation regulatory committee for GHG verification, as well as applying for DOE for being a validation and verification/certification entity; The general objective of management system certification is to ensure all interest parties believe that the management system of certified clients meet with the stipulated requirement. The fairness of validation and verification/certification is the fundamental guarantee of certification value. Impartiality is the fundamental guarantee of validation and verification/certification value. The company undertakes to implement the validation and verification/certification in a fair manner, and is responsible for the impartiality of the validation and verification/certification, and does not allow commercial, financial or other pressures to damage the impartiality. Therefore, the company hereby makes the following policy and commitment:

(1) The company will strictly abide by the relevant laws, EB accreditation requirements & regulations of the state and the quality policy of the company during validation & verification/certification, and carry out the validation & verification/certification activities within the business scope approved and recognized by competent authorities;

(2) The company holds a fair & open attitude to any organization that voluntarily applies for validation & verification/certification. The standards & regulations implemented are the basis for validation & verification/certification, and the company earnestly performs the validation & verification /certification procedures;

- (3) The company independently signs the validation & verification /certification contract and does not sign one-stop contract covering consultation & certification. Both the Company and our staff shall not engage in any consulting activities related to the company's validation & verification/certification business;
- (4)The purpose of conducting validation & verification/certification business shall not be for a profit, no internal economic contracting for validation & verification / certification quantity and no external market competition by improper means. Validation & verification / certification fees are subject to related national and CDM project regulations. No referral fees shall be given in any name to the applicant for validation & verification/certification or to any intermediary, and using it to solicit client for validation & verification / certification;
- (5) The company adheres to the objective truth of the validation & verification / certification process and the impartiality of the validation & verification / certification, and conduct fair management of all personnel covering branch staff involved in the validation & verification/certification to ensure that there is no interest relationship between validation & verification/certification clients. This shall include no involvement in any applicant client's management system consultant service or internal audit; no involvement in consultant service relevant to any validation & verification/certification (CDM activity & PoA) project, or engage in other activities (e.g., development, financing, capital raising, exploitation, consulting, project-related training, etc.);
- (6) The company ensures that all full/part-time employees, covering those in branches & sub-contractors, act impartially and no power using for personal interest, no deception or cheating, and no priority given to or delay acceptance of any entrusting party for the interest of any individual, collective or other parties, putting an end to unhealthy practices. Keep the confidentiality of validation & verification/certification clients, safeguard the interests of validation & verification/certification clients with any violation will be seriously dealt with;

- (7) The company shall not combine the validation & verification/certification staff's salary together with whether or not the client being validated & verified/certified;
- (8) The company shall not conduct tailor-made non-public course training for any client who have passed or authorized the company for validation & verification /certification. All related trainings shall be made to the public to ensure no impact over the impartiality of validation & verification /certification;
- (9) The company has established a mechanism to safeguard impartiality and set up an impartiality committee to monitor the impartiality of all activities of validation & verification /certification;
- (10) The company does not provide the investor Beijing United Intelligence Enterprise Management Co., Ltd. with validation & verification /certification service, nor the service of this kind to those companies the Group invested.

Beijing United Intelligence Certification Co., Ltd. solemnly declares to strictly prevent the occurrence of the issues listed above that seriously affect the impartiality of the company and seriously violate EB accreditation requirements. In case any occurrence of the above, the company shall firmly implement relevant decision from EB, including any impact over maintaining or even withdrawal of the validation & verification /certification qualification.

Beijing United Intelligence Certification Co., Ltd.

19th April, 2022